

Director Spotlights

September 2022

Suzanne Reed

Charleston School of the Arts Middle School

Mrs. Reed has been doing some incredible work with her students at the Charleston School of the Arts Middle School. This year, her band will be performing in Carnegie Hall in New York City and premiering a new piece they have collaborated on with Robert W. Smith. She is a passionate educator who evokes the best from her students. Congratulations Suzanne Reed on a job well done, and best wishes on your performance in NYC.

Chuck Capps

St. James High School

Mr. Capps recently took his students to perform "God Bless America" for the Southern 500 race at Darlington Speedway. This performance was televised for millions of people across the country. For many of his students, this was the first time they have ever been out of the Myrtle Beach area. Mr. Capps is truly an amazing band director that truly has the best interests of his kids at heart in every decision he makes. Congratulations Chuck Capps!

We are looking to recognize outstanding South Carolina band educators and want your input.

If you would like to nominate a SC Band Director to be recognized in a future SCBDA Directors Spotlight, please email Adam Scheuch at ascheuch@bandlink.org. Include the director's name, school, a pic, and all the exciting things they have done for us to celebrate.
