Adrian Wright

Dillon High School

Adrian Wright is quite literally Superman. He has demonstrated what true courage looks like in the face of adversity. The band students at Dillon learn through Mr. Wright's model that giving up is not an option. His school and community have rallied around him in support and celebration for his determination and achievements. Congratulations to Mr. Wright on being the superhero your students need!

Travis and Zora Foster

Lewisville High School and Lewisville Middle School

Mr. and Mrs. Foster are pouring their heart out for the students in the rural area of Lewisville. Together they strive to provide the best for their community by teaching great character through music education. Travis recently earned the Teacher of the Year award for Lewisville High School as well as the Honor Roll Teacher for the Chester County School District. Congratulations to the Fosters on being an incredible support for your school and community!

We are looking to recognize outstanding South Carolina band educators and want your input.
