AN ALL NEW EXPERIENCE!

Dr. Barry McGinnis

Located at the esteemed Newberry College Alumni Music Center, The Palmetto Clarinet and Saxophone Festival offers a unique opportunity for music students of all ages to gain personal and group experience in learning what it means to be a top-tier musician on their respective instruments. In a tradition recognized for excellence by parents, participants and educators since its original inception in 2018, this event offers workshops by highly respected national and international educators and performers with students collaborating together in a free evening concert. New surprises also await participants for this all-new event, including:

- ◇ Lunch with the founders and clinicians
- ◇ 1-on-1 lessons available with the founders, Dr. Barry McGinnis of Newberry College and Dr. Zachary Bond of the University of South Carolina Aiken
- ◇ Music retail and service vendors
- ◇ Raffles for unique prizes!
- ◇ Check out our Festival Shop for amazing musical merchandise!
